Not sure and I have no way to test sorry.

Best I can offer is if you buy them and they dont fit send them back and I will give you a full refund

Would you send them to me and if they fit i'll pay you, if they dont fit i'll pay for the postage back to you, I've a feeling they will fit because the greddy side skirts look fairly similar to the bomex,

I understand where your coming from but I dont know any business who will give a product out without receiving payment first, refunds arent an issue on my end so if you change your mind let me know :)

Ben,

Did you get that PM I sent you?

I ordered some bits and pieces the other day but you dont have Republic of Ireland set up so I used Southern Ireland. The link brought me through to the Swedish Paypal page and therefore gave my address as Sweden.

I have just sent an email to your sales email addy too.

EDIT, I just checked the order confirmation from your website and it seems to have overridden the Paypal address and used the address that I put in, so seems ok. Fingers crossed! :pray:

Thanks.

I like the way you say "some bits and pieces" - you ordered a full carbon fibre car ! :P

And Paypal got hold of your geographical location - we know what you were chasing up in Sweden and it wasn't carbon fibre B)

@Ben...phew!...thanks mate, I checked up on your email confirmations and stuff and it seems your website overrode the Paypal address anyway...nice one mate...was quite worried there for a while. I am really hoping to get the delivery in the morning. Well, in 6 hours from now...shite...is that the time? Crap.

@Spidey.....Hehehheeeeee u will need to come to Antrim to see...if the post arrives anyway. I love CF, specially Swedish women in CF thongs. OOOohhhh....itchy.. :laugh:
