From what I gather the sti model is the one to have. If i was going down that route Id be after a evo 7+.

Its a shame they never gave the celica (gen 7?) 4 wheel drive and a turbo. The fensport time attack celica is awesome

I LOVE that celica. You're spot on about it being a shame they never produced a turbo charged model of this car. It would have been a hit I would have thought.
