

Wanted new car: Off MR2 topic

Posted by b4ss - 2009/10/21 14:48

Hi,

A friend of mine needs a car asap, she currently has an Almera, and is looking for another one. Around 3000Euro Max. But am open to other cars if you have something decent for sale?

Let me know.

Was looking at possibly this

<http://www.carzone.ie/search/Nissan/Almera/3Dr-1.5-/200941195465852/advert?channel=CARS>

Anyone had any dealings with this crowd Manor Field Motors?

Came across this on boards.ie

<http://www.boards.ie/vbulletin/showthread.php?t=2055228493>

Alot of the stuff on boards is good, other not so good.

Thoughts?

Thanks,

Tony

get in touch with dmaprelude and snap up that mr2 turbo if he still has it!
who needs practicality when you've got 200+ ponies sitting behind you B)

there are plenty of bargains out there at the moment, shop around and haggle!
is she set on an almera? the one you posted doesn't seem anything special value-for-money-wise
