

few bits an bobs

Posted by Cashy - 2009/10/30 15:27

Hello all I was just wondering if anyone has a front lip splitter preferably unpainted. Although black or red would be fine too. I'm thinkin of smoked indicators too but I'm not to sure. If anyone has these lemme know thanks :)

Nice one. I'd love to give my2 a full respray but a bit of compound and polish will have to do. Ya, i'm thinkin of the smoked indicators. I'd like to get some aftermarket rear lights too but everything seems to be for the rev3up?!? Anyone see anything for rev1 or 2??

yeah i will soon Quandry :cheer: currently not got much time to get down to the workshop to do anythink or even take pictures as im working 6 days a week and some evenings... will get up a post about it when i can ;)

i'll let you in on a bit of info tho unfortunately being 18... i've gone for the n/a 2 (insurance is a killer!)

so im currently in the naked stage with my 2

full respray in alfa blue border front bumper

veilside side skirts

veilside rear bumper

(im not usually a fan of bodykits but thort id give it a shot!)

autopista spoiler (if i can ever get my hands on one of those things!)

whole inside of car being reflocked in electric blue with blue/black leather seats blue carpet etc...

some smothing to be done to bodywork aswell thort i'd make it look a little differnt :side:

let me know what you think, ill make a proper thread when i get time and pictures :laugh:

p.s sorry for writing all over ur post cashy :unsure:
