

CarBen Fibre Creations Specials/Discounts/Group Bu

All,

Recently I have started a number of group buy threads in the hope people would be interested in applying for discounts in numbers. The result wasn't what I expected; I didn't get much feedback which leads me to believe these days, with the current financial climate, people are unable to commit to these group buys which is perfectly understandable.

I have thought about a solution to this and think I have an answer, instead of running the group buys every month we now have a 'Specials' section on our website. This section will contain discounts for each product on sale; products will change every month as if it was a group buy starting on the 1st of the month and ending the last day. The product will be discounted by a certain % depending on price.

Each month I will post up what is on sale so you don't have to keep checking the website. Products can be purchased through the website by creating an account, no discount codes are needed.

I will still be interested in running group buys, these will be the way you can all gain maximum discount on a product however with the recent lack of interest I will only start one if asked by a member.

I hope this helps you all, any feedback would be appreciated.

Kind Regards
Ben
