

Anyone heading from X to Y ??

Posted by Quandry - 2012/02/21 14:22

I can not claim the credit for this idea, Smurfster mentioned it at the Eddie Rockets meet last week.

The idea is that if you are going somewhere and have room to bring a part to help out a club member put it in here. Also you can post in here if you have something that you're trying to get to a fellow club member.

If you need a urgent delivery/delivery receipt etc, then use a courier but for something that is not urgent and there's someone going there anyway then maybe it could be useful.

I'll go first. I have a Rev3 spoiler and am in Dublin, Paschal O wants to buy the spoiler but he is in Drogheda. Is there anyone in Dublin going to Drogheda, maybe I can drop the spoiler to you and you drop it to Paschal?

only if you're going there anyway

No plans to go to Drogheda but it's a good idea! I've been to Limerick via Dublin twice in the last two weeks. Arklow/Gorey to dublin is almost a weekly commute.
