Amazing!! would love to see it in person.

Is that rev3 engine an american import? from what i know only they have EGR valves. our emissions arent that strict so you can get rid of it to make more bhp. kc'd

Re: my work in progress/build thread

Posted by leesw20 - 2013/04/15 22:09

It's a rev4 engine they came with egr valve but its non functional as I'm using a rev3 ecu
Cheers for the comments still lots more to do to it tbh lol

Thought I'd add a spec list,
Rev1 shell/chassis
Border front bumper rep
C-west 3 piece skirts (genuine)
C-west rear spats (genuine)
Custom made rear valance (based on bn sports rear)
Custom flared front and rear arches
Smoked front indicators
Aftermarket mirrors with indicators so wings have had indicators removed Advan sa3r wheels fully polished 18x9 front 18x9.5 rear
Tanabe shocks and springs
Super flex poly bushes
Rev3 brake upgrade
Rogue replica headlights
Jdm rev3 rear lights with red tinted indicators and markers
Carbon wrapped rev3 centre panel modified to fit jdm el glow rear badge
Rev3 spoiler
Turbo engine lid
Carbon wrapped inspection panels and rear 1/4 vents

Rev4 n/a engine and LSD gearbox
Polished tvis chamber
Alloy radiator
Various blue pipework
Bmc cda air filter
X brace
Japspeed turbo exhaust with custom made downpipe to fit n/a
Engine bay wire tuck with fuse box and coolant res located in boot

Flocked dash, glovebox,centre tunnel
Carbon wrapped dash panels,window switches etc
El glow dials
Short shifter kit
8 ball gear knob
Jdm red stitched gaitor
Isotta steering wheel
Restored turbo 1/2 leather seats
Custom door builds with pioneer components
Sony rear speakers
Kenwood head unit
Phoenix gold 10" sub

Phoenix gold 2ch amp
Sony 5 channel amp
Heater controls, clock, ignition surround and window switches converted to blue LEDs
Push button starter (still to be fitted)
Tinted rear windows

I think that's all lol I've done all the work myself bar the door builds as a mate done those for me lol
Think the only thing left I want to buy is a kamikaze power deck spacer and poss a rev5 or bomex drift spoiler very nice, you gonna respray the car when u have everything bonded on?

and have you any details on that black mr2 in the last pic on the right?

i really like that rear bumper...

Re: my work in progress/build thread

Posted by leesw20 - 2014/05/09 20:06

yeah ill respray it once ive finished getting everything onto it and looking right at the min bits are just thrown on so their not lying about the garage lol.

yeah the black one has the full phoenix power kit on it.

Re: my work in progress/build thread

im now breaking this due to lack of time to finish it :(parts that are sold already, headlights, engine, front bumper, front sidelights, clutch/flywheel, sill plates, steering wheel.

the wheels are not for sale as their going on my other car.

everything else is available.

I know but I've started my own business and I'm currently working 24/7 plus I've a wee daughter now too so 2 seats is no real use to me so I haven't the time to finish it off. Am staying with the Toyota family though as I've an is200 as my daily lol

Posted by Luksander - 2014/10/01 13:06

Why would you not sell all car as it was? It looks great so not sure why braking after so much good work done?

How much for the front lights? Are they need modiffication on motor to open just half?

Re: my work in progress/build thread

Posted by leesw20 - 2014/10/01 14:20

Front lights are sold sorry
