Sweet, KC'd for the pics! I'd imagine it was slippery enough, any 180's?

It was indeed a little slippery ... There was a misfire in the car so I didnt really get to have as much fun as I should have ... And by the end of the day it seemed to run much better but then the snow came ... Visibility got low and more sideways action ... epic fun

He over cooked his brakes many many times , I think I can still smell them .

I just heard the Ferrari in the top picture killed his engine . Oops
