

Meet up?

Posted by b4ss - 2016/01/22 11:25

Hi,
With a few new members and some ppl jetting off to warmer climes, maybe we could do a mini meetup, maybe some evening?
We used to meet up at Eddie rockets or something the odd evening, its probably a bit early in the year for a drive, as most ppls MR2s are tucked up in garages...

Anyone up for it? Tue/Wed/Thur evening?
Tony

What about Tesco car park in maynooth, roof over your head and coffee in mcdonalds right there too, Not far from liffey and more chances of other members coming from midlands since its not in dublin where all the mad traffic is.

Maynooth works for me, unless people wants something closer? as it will more than likely be an evening around 8pm?

What suits other people am completely flexible..
